GLENDALÉ'S TV STATION ONCE AGAIN PARTNERS WITH CBS 5 FOR MONSOON SAFETY TV SHOW

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – For the fifth summer, Glendale 11 TV has partnered with CBS 5 to give viewers an in-depth look at Arizona's yearly weather phenomenon, the monsoon. The TV show, Monsoon: Eye on the Storm, produced in partnership with CBS 5, will debut Friday, June 21 at 7:30 p.m. on Glendale 11 giving viewers important and interesting information about the monsoon, safety tips and local resources for storm season emergencies.

This special Glendale edition of Monsoon: Eye on the Storm features experts from the Glendale fire and police departments, Glendale 11's Julie Watters, CBS 5 main anchor Sean McLaughlin and CBS 5's team of meteorologists. Viewers are directed to the city of Glendale's monsoon website at www.glendaleaz.com/monsoon, which has customized information for Glendale residents. According to the National Weather Service, the monsoon officially began June 15 and will end Sept. 30.

Monsoon: Eye on the Storm will air every Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. and throughout the week and can also be watched online at www.glendaleaz.com/video. For more information about Glendale 11 or the new TV show, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.
